NortonLifeLock products, services, and technologies are subject to import, export, and other trade regulations under the laws of the United States and other national governments. You are responsible for complying with any local laws in your jurisdiction that may impact your right to import, export, or use NortonLifeLock products, services, software, or technologies. Each product has an Export Control Classification Number (ECCN) and license information, and corresponds to a Harmonized Tariff Schedule number. The table below lists NortonLifeLock products with version numbers, ECCNs, license information, and the U.S. Schedule B number.
